

Efficient absence management

UKA Solutions supports you with the administration and processing of daily allowance-relevant absences in your dealings with insurers and compensation offices.

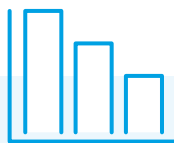

Insurance cases for accident and illness

- Administration of accident and illness case incidents
- Straightforward inputting of accident reports by employees or supervisors
- Convenient uploading of medical certificates by employees and supervisors
- Electronic transmission of case reports, medical certificates and documents to the insurer
- Automatic check of absences against medical certificates
- Automated calculation of individual daily allowance claims
- Calculation of wage continuation with import of daily allowances and wage cuts into the wage system

Administration of compensations

- Administration of loss of earnings compensation, maternity benefits and benefits to the other parent
- Controlling of incoming payments
- Electronic data exchange with compensation offices IG AKIS
- Calculation of wage continuation and wage cuts with import of daily allowances into the wage system

Reporting

- Extensive absence and daily allowance reporting capabilities, etc.
- Key figures as a tool for corporate health management
- Automatic dispatch of reports to predefined recipients

System integration and security

- Data import interfaces from personnel and time systems
- Encrypted data transfer within the network
- Regular security audits ensure the highest security standards
- Company certified according to ISO 9001, ISO/IEC 27001 and ISO/IEC 27701